

Sport Northern Ireland SportMaker Awards

Children's Coach of the Year – Stephanie Wilson (inSPIRES Gymnastics Club)

Stephanie Wilson
Gymnastics

"Stephanie is hard working, driven, gymnast centered, caring and has a desire to positively grow each gymnast or student she works with, holistically, so they can reach their own potential in life."

SportMaker Awards

Community Coach of the Year – Alison McMullan (Abbey Gymnastics), Cushla Connor (Newry Olympic Gymnastics Club)

Alison McMullan
Gymnastics

"Alison is a wonderful coach and has created a friendly, inclusive and professional club."

SportMaker Awards

Cushla Connor
Gymnastics

"Cushla has a passion for gymnastics which is second to none. She believes every child is unique and they unwrap their talents at different stages. Cushla is the glue that holds our club together"

SportMaker Awards

Performance Coach of the Year – Ashleigh Barr (Antrim Phoenix DMT & Trampoline)

Ashleigh Barr
Gymnastics

"Ashleigh's achievements in 2019 are outstanding for her gymnasts and phenomenal for her as a coach, in a relatively small club in the smallest region of British Gymnastics!"

SportMaker Awards

Young Coach of the Year – Naoisa Trotter (Bridge Gymnastics)

Naoisa Trotter
Gymnastics

"Naoisa has set up the club by herself, from coaching all classes to purchasing equipment. She has managed all aspects while completing her university studies."

SportMaker Awards

Young Volunteer of the Year – Rachel Craig (ION Gymnastics)

Volunteer of the Year – Margaret Turner (Ballysillan Gymnastics Club)

